

THE KARL N. LLEWELLYN PAPERS:

A SUPPLEMENTARY GUIDE TO THE COLLECTION

COMPILED AND WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY

SHERI H. LEWIS

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
D'ANGELO LAW LIBRARY

1994

INTRODUCTION

This supplementary guide is the product of a several-month long project involving this collection. Two primary tasks were ongoing during the project. The first task was to perform remedial preservation work on deteriorating or "at risk" portions of the collection. The second task, and the one which led to the publication of this supplementary guide, was to organize, describe and provide access to those materials added to the collection since the publication of the original guide. As an extension of this task, additional access points have been created for three sections of the original guide: A. Published Works; I. American Indians and "Primitive" Law; and X. Confidential.

The result before you is a supplementary guide with two very distinct parts. The first part gives a further delineation of the contents of a section (or subsection) of the original collection of the papers. This portion is labeled "Supplement Guide." As suggested above, this part of the supplementary guide covers selected portions of sections A., I. and X. only.

The second part of this work is a guide to the addendum, or those items added to the collection since it was originally organized. This portion is labelled "Addendum Guide." The addendum is subdivided further into two sections. Addendum AA consist of all original items added to the papers since 1970. Addendum BB is a collection of archival copies of portions of The Emma Corstvet Papers at the Bryn Mawr Library.

A comment as to the organization of Addendum AA is appropriate. In an effort to better serve the researcher, Addendum AA was arranged to parallel the organization of the original collection. Thus, items in Addendum AA are labelled with the same alphabetic (and sometimes numeric) designation as the corresponding items in the original collection, but preceded by AA. Accordingly, materials concerning the Uniform Commercial Code, which are in section J. of the original collection, are in section AA. J. in Addendum AA. This organization should allow cross-referencing from the original guide to the supplementary guide to occur with ease.

This supplementary guide to the Karl N. Llewellyn Papers would not have been completed without support from the staff at the D'Angelo Law Library. Special thanks are due to the following for their invaluable assistance and guidance throughout the project and in the preparation of this guide: Rebecca S. Bealer, Charles J. Ten Brink and Judith Wright.
