TRADE CATALOGUES—GENERAL.

* This list only includes the almost indispensable trade papers and catalogues, and such publications of recent date as may serve some practical purpose. For further bibliographical research, see the "Bibliotheca Americana." The Editor hopes, however, to be able to record in the next year the publication of a more valuable compilation for the use of the trade, viz.: A bibliographical list of works connected with paper, printing, bookselling, and literary history, by W. H. Gee, of Oxford, the successful competitor for the London "Bookseller’s" price.

The American Catalogue of Books (Original and Reprints), published in the United States from Jan. 1861 to Jan. 1866, with date of publication, size, price, and publisher’s name. With Supplementary containing Periodical Publications, of American, and Addresses on the Civil War in the United States, 1861—1865; and Appendix containing names of Learned Societies and other Literary Associations, with their Publications, 1861—1866. Compiled and Arranged by Jas. Kelly. 8°, pp. 337. New York, John Wiley & Son, 1866.

James Kelly is now preparing the second volume of the American Catalogue. It will contain all the books published in the United States from January, 1865, to January, 1871, and will be issued uniform with vol. 1 to 1865.

The American Catalogue of Books for 1866, containing complete Monthly Lists of all the books published in the United States during the year 1865, with a statement of Size, Price, Place of Publication, and Publisher’s name, to which are prefixed an Alphabetical and Classified Index. 8°, pp. 103. N. Y., Leyloldt & Hoyt, 1870. — Publishers and Stationers’ Trade List Directory, 1869. 8°. Phila., H. Challen. —...

for 1871. (In press.) Will consist of Trade Lists and Advertisements, indexed alphabetically, according to authors and titles.

Though the exclusion of reprints, and the substitution of English prices, make this catalogue practical for the common use of the American bookseller, it contains so much information in regard to American bibliography, literature, the history of the book trade, libraries, etc., that we refer to it in place of enumerating all the bibliographical resources recorded in it so thoroughly. It is, moreover, the most accurate and systematic record of American literature for the time given, and as yet unsurpassed as a model of what a contented country’s catalogues should be. We intend, if sufficiently encouraged, to make use of its excellent material in preparing a history of the American book trade for the next year’s Annual.

The English Catalogue of Books (Annual). A Continuation of the London and British Catalogues. 8°. London, Sampson Low, Son & Marston...

Catalogues of German and French Books have been issued by Brown, & Co., and Scribner, Welford & Co. Catalogues of French and German books, general and special, may be obtained from any of the above-named importers.

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL AND LITERARY WORKS OF REFERENCE.

See also, Works of Reference, and Literary Miscellany, in Vol. I. of the American Catalogue.

A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century, Containing over Forty-six Thousand Articles (Authorial), with Forty Indexes of Subjects. 3 vols. By S. Austin Allibone. Improved and corrected by Geo. P. Rowell & Co. $8.00. The second edition of this work consists of a copious index of subjects, so that the inquirer can find at a glance all the authors of any note in the language, arranged under the subject heads by which they have written. Under Agriculture, Antiquities, Chemistry, Divinity, Drama, Law, Political Economy, Biography, etc., he will find authors' names indexed, and by matching with the title or titles of his work or works, and probably an estimate of the value of his labors. The author thus presents to the public, in a vast and intricate, but comprehensive Manual of English Literature—authors and subjects—a manual which is the key to the literature of the world; and what an ordinary dictionary is to the words of the language.

Lippincott's Universal Pronouncing Dictionary of Biography and Mythology. By J. Thomas. 2 vols. royal. By Phila., J. B. Lippincott & Co. $2.00. Valuable for its Bibliographical References. Following the close of the principal articles, both Biographical and Mythological, this dictionary be found ample lists of references to works furnishing more extended accounts of the subjects under consideration, should any desire to pursue their investigations beyond the limits of the articles before them.

An Index to the Principal Works in every Department of Religious Literature, embracing nearly seventy thousand citations, arranged under two thousand heads. By Howard Malcom, D.D., LL.D. Second Ed., with addenda. Phila., J. B. Lippincott & Co. 8°. pp. 403. 1872. Price $4.00. Lists the contents of the second division of this work is one of coins, bibliography, and mythology. The author of this splendid work has been the editor of the "Weekly Union," and has at his command the services of some of the most prominent literary men of America, and has thus produced a work that is unequalled in its kind.

A Library Manual, for promoting and aiding in the formation of Free Public Libraries, is to be published under the auspices of the Social Science Organization. (See note under "Literary Instruction."
Scott's (Sir Walter) Writings—Athenaeum, Jan. 7, 1871.

FOR THE USE OF PUBLISHERS, PRINTERS, STATIONERS, ETC.

The Paper Trade Reporter. (Monthly.) N. Y., Manahan & Miller. Per annum .......... 1.00
The Printer's Circular. A Record of Typography, Letter-press, &c., and Specimens. 8s. 4d. Per annum .......... 1.00

A chronologically arranged history of paper-makers and paper-making, giving the names of all who have become distinguished as inventors or manufacturers, the improvements they introduced, and other matters of interest connected with the paper-making art. This edition which is brought down to the last part of the latter year, the latest paragraph recording the paper on the last edition of French papers, caused by the present war. The preface gives a history of paper or its substance, from the earliest times, and includes a list of one hundred and nine different substances used for its manufacture.

The Dictionary of Typography, now in course of publication in the Printer's Circular, Philadelphia, will soon be published in book form.

We do not know of any work on typography which so nearly succeeds in bringing printing to the rank of a fine art as this very elegant volume, written and printed by Mr. Harpel. But it is more than a reference book of styles, for while its chief value to printers lies in the fact that it shows correct and finished models for every kind of work, and gives the most perfect and accurate reproduction of its own typography, it contains a great deal of information which it would be difficult, otherwise, to obtain.

Of the artistic features of the book it would be difficult to give a sufficient description without using special abbreviations of job work, such as is done in the average printing offices, it takes us through a labyrinth of labels, billheads, cards, circulars, gives us every description of typography and of composition, delights us with fancy borders and artistic illustrations of wood-cut engraving, and breaks at last into the richest decorative patterns. In explored work we find examples of everything within the range of the art, from elaborate show-cards to illuminated title pages. The labor and expense of this part of it must have been very great, yet the outcome is fully justified in the result. —Am. Newspaper Reporter.

An invaluable book for publishers and stationers. The exhaustive description of all kinds of paper alone should make it indispensable to the latter. But a more thoroughgoing treatise on this subject would show how thoroughly the author has treated his subject: the book gives the market prices of all kinds of paper, both by the ream and fractions of a ream, with specifications of standard weights and qualities; revised prices of all kinds of printingfrom a card to a book, including lithography, copper-plate, ruling, binding, stamping, and the prices of all kinds of trade; detailed estimates, specifying items, and showing most approved methods of making complicated prices; explanatory notes, pointing out economical methods of saving work, and specifying work at extra price; observations on the cost of composition and the prices per thousand of collodion ink; used as in ordinary work; the prices of labor, the trade prices of lithographers, &c.; the prices of printing materials, and the table of expiration of contracts, of special value, to all who wish to buy stock or compare prices. The work is a marvellous labor and accuracy, and the style of the book a model of typography and book-making.

Samples of the Styles of Printing Briefs, Records, etc., from the Press of Robt. Clarke & Co., Cinc., 8vo. pp. 44.

A Monogram and Alphabet Album. After designs of Eminent French Artists. 8vo. N. Y. J. Salton & Sons. $6.50; on loan quarterly ....... 75.
A large 8vo volume, comprising 1,000 different designs and combinations of initials, varieties of German Text, Old English, Script, Crown, &c., and some fancy designs for names. A book which should commend itself successfully to engravers, jewelers, sign, coach, and decorative painters, card writers, sign writers, stationers, and designers generally, it cannot but be of great service as a pattern and reference book, furnishing designs in such number and variety of style as to immediately enable a satisfactory selection, independent of its merit as suggestive to an artist's invention.

The Proof-sheet Tables. Signatures: Type Gauge, from Diamond to Book Hand, etc., designed for any book; do. for Jobs; Proportions of Type (from Pica to Pearl); etc. Phila., Collins & McLeod. 25 cents per set; by mail, 35 cents.

Paper and Card Scale, for Fractional Sizes, showing at a glance the number of pieces of any required size, that can be cut from a sheet of paper or card-board, without waste. This Scale is neatly gotten up on card-board and paper, 12x16 inches, and shows a quarter-sheet of each, of seventeen sizes, from Plat I to Plat XXIV (10x15) to Imperial (23x30). On the scale are also given two tables, which will be found of great advantage; one showing the number of sheets required for 1,000 copies (having found the number of single sheet); from two to one hundred on a sheet; the other table shows the cost per quire, per sheet, and per hundred sheets, at any given price per ream. $1; by mail, $.75.
